What does PHTLS cover?

PHTLS picks up where the initial educational programs leave off. The course focuses on trauma patients in the prehospital environment—how to identify, manage, and transport them with the highest level of care giving them the greatest chance of survival.

PHTLS students learn to:
- Identify the mechanism of injury
- Recognize the life-threatening injuries
- Relate pathophysiology to injuries
- Assess and manage trauma patients
- Perform appropriate interventions

The skills stations in the PHTLS course include:
- Airway Management
- Assessment and Management
- Rapid Extrication
- Spinal Immobilization
- Pediatric Assessment
- Pediatric Immobilization
- Evaluation Scenarios
