SAVE THE DATE!

Sunday, May 15th, 2011
11:00 AM – 4:00 PM
Randalls Island
FDNY Training Academy

Topics include:
- CPR, defibrillation and drugs - what is the right mix for VF?
- To tube or not to tube - the role of endotracheal intubation in cardiac arrest management
- Strategies to ensure quality chest compressions
- Thoughtful management of non-VF rhythms
- Strategies to improve community CPR training
- Best practices for pre-arrival CPR instructions
- Termination of resuscitation decisions
- Therapeutic hypothermia and post-arrest care
- What’s on the horizon for resuscitation?

 CME - 5 hours credit given.

Working together to provide the best service

RSVP by April 22, 2011
Space is limited.

To register:
Visit www.fdnyfoundation.org
(click on EMS CONF. MAY 15)

Fee: $15
Breakfast and lunch will be provided.