Daniel Limmer is a practicing Paramedic and Educator who has been involved in EMS and Law Enforcement for over 35 years. Dan is the author of more than a dozen textbooks currently utilized by emergency medical services personnel. Dan is a frequent speaker at EMS conferences around the country, and has authored the new Topics in Transition Series of texts, which addresses the new EMS Education Standards.

This presentation has been designed to introduce NYS Educators to the recently adapted National EMS Education Standards. This Program will provide insight, methodology, and approaches to successful integration of the new standards into the classroom. Daniel Limmer will review the National EMS Education Standards in detail with a specific focus on how the EMS classroom has differed in comparison to past standards.
