INTRODUCTION TO HYPERBARIC MEDICINE
(Meets recently-mandated CMS guidelines for Hyperbaric education)

Winthrop University Hospital
Nassau University Medical Center
St. Francis Hospital & Medical Center
Good Samaritan Hospital
Mineola, NY
East Meadow, NY
Hartford, CT
Suffern, NY
Oct 6-10, 2012
Oct 4-8, 2013
Feb 7-11, 2013
April 19-23, 2013
June 7-11, 2013

ALL COURSES SUBJECT TO CHANGE

TARGET AUDIENCE: M.D.s, D.O.s, D.P.M.s, N.P.s, P.A.s, R.N.s, L.P.N.s, R.T.s, EMTs, EMT-Ps, DMTs and other health care professionals.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:
1. Provide physicians with a recognized professional education course that may help them become hospital credentialed to supervise hyperbaric medical activities.
2. Enable physicians to qualify candidates for hyperbaric treatments based on CMS and UHMS guidelines.
3. Enable physicians to supervise and bill for Medicare / Medicaid treatments.
4. Provide education on how to improve clinical outcomes through the use of hyperbaric medicine.
5. Give physicians and other health professionals information and guidelines about procedures for treating hyperbaric patients.

REGISTRATION FEE:
MD, DO, DPM, Ph.D. ...............................................................
NP, PA, RN, LPN, RT, Paramedics, EMT, DMT, other

$975
$775

(914) 333-8412
www.LifeSupport-USA.com