PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

New York Methodist Hospital’s Paramedic Program is an intensive, twelve-month course, leading to New York State Department of Health and New York City Regional Emergency Medical Advisory Committee certification as an emergency medical technician-paramedic. Upon successful completion of the program, students also receive BLS, ACLS and PALS and PHTLS certification. The course curriculum includes 564.5 hours of didactic work (lectures and labs) and 572 hours of required clinical rotations.

New York Methodist Hospital’s Paramedic Program follows the latest national curriculum for EMT-Paramedic training. Students are taught the cognitive, clinical and technical skills necessary to practice pre-hospital advanced life support.

New York Methodist Hospital’s Paramedic Program is an approved National Registry Testing Site and provides graduates with the National Registry Practical Exam
