OMG Series!

Psychological 1st Aid for the First Responder

Course Description:

Join Drew Fried, EMT-B/CIC as he introduces you to the concepts of Psychological First Aid and will prepare you to provide compassionate care and emotional support during disasters and public health emergencies. Disaster survivors and relief workers can often experience high levels of stress and uncertainty. Psychological First Aid gives us practical ways to help people with their basic needs and immediate concerns. It also provides a mechanism for supporting individuals who provide help and assistance during disasters.

This course may be applied toward Preparatory or General Elective CME hours under the NY State DOH EMS Continuing Education Recertification Program.
